Webinar On
Patent Protection Strategies in Singapore and India

Date: April 29, 2020

Time: 11:00 AM IST, 1:30 PM SGT

About the Webinar:

India and Singapore are two major jurisdictions for securing patent protection by Innovators/R&D Establishments. It is very common for an entity based in either of these territories to protect their technical innovation in the other territory by way of patents, and it is also common for an Applicant in either of the countries to have inventors from both the Countries. Khurana and Khurana (K&K, India) and Alpha & Omega Law Corporation (Singapore), will be holding a Joint Webinar to demystify various aspects of patent protection strategies in India and Singapore including practices one may adopt for comprehensive protection and enforcement. Aspects that would be covered in the webinar include:

- Overview of Patent Filing and Prosecution Strategies in India and Singapore for optimal protection including estimated costs for each action
- Tips on fastest way of obtaining Patents in either of the Jurisdictions and pitfalls that one needs to be careful of
- Discussion on Specific Attributes of Patent Protection in Each Country (such as Foreign Filing License (FFL), Divisional Patent Applications, Impact of ISR/IPER on Prosecution, among others)
